

BOARD

Ensures PCFA objectives are met
Ensures Executive follows PCFA objectives

May appoint Counsellors (external experts)
May set up Working Groups (from Members)
Above comprising external experts, to review or research and suggest areas of action by the Association. Such experts will be responsible for a particular field of interest, and appointment letter and certificate, with a Terms of Reference is to be prior approved by the Board.

EXECUTIVE

In charge of communicating with China
In charge of proposing projects to the Board

May appoint Advisors (external experts)
May set up Project Steering Committees (from Members)
Above comprising of External Experts, for a defined period of time to review or research and suggest areas of action by the Association in the development of proposals for the Board's consideration. Such experts will be responsible for a particular field of interest and may, with the President's approval, appoint the individual via a letter and certificate, with a terms of reference to take lead of a priority project in its planning and design phase, where appropriate.